

You are the smell of Banana Bread.

The friends along the way.

The Sweetness of Apples.

And the fun in Midday.

You're the trip-ups in rollerskating!

The cozieness in my bed.

The cuteness in a bunny's eyes.

And the games I play till my eyes are dead. X X

You are the sun in the moonlight.

My Umbrella in the rain.

A shining glow of light.

And the one that keeps me sane.

I light up with joy when I feel your embrace

Your love for me is written on your face

you

me
